

Enhance Your Reach

Expand Your Audience. Engage with ECE Professionals.

Who Are We

Child Care Aware® of America (CCAoA) is your access to a network of highly qualified early childhood education professionals, thought leaders, peers and resources.

Founded in 1987, CCAoA is the leading nonprofit organization partnering with early childhood education (ECE) professionals. We specialize in research and data, thought leadership, advocacy, networking and more for the child care community. In addition, CCAoA is proud to partner with the United States Military and Department of Defense to serve and support military families with their child care needs.

We are your connection to an audience of ECE professionals and to the national conversation around child care system challenges and the strategies to overcome them. With a vibrant national network of state and local Child Care Resource and Referral agencies, CCAoA is at the forefront of the national movement to re-envision the child care system that supports children's growth, development and educational advancement and creates a positive economic impact for families and communities.

Let us help you:
